

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Policy 808 (previously 1008)

Volunteers in Schools

The Board of Education (Richmond) supports and values active parent/guardian involvement in the education of their children, and therefore encourages parent or community volunteer participation as a complement to school programs. The volunteer and school community will value and honour the relationship and trust established with students and adults at the school.

