

FINANCE

Policy 600

Financial Management

The Board of Education (Richmond) recognizes its responsibility for prudent financial stewardship and for the creation of processes and controls that will ensure due diligence in the financial oversight and accountability of school district operations that support the achievement of strategic education and business goals.